

Migration

Biblical Viewpoint

- God recognizes immigrants as uniquely vulnerable to injustice, alongside the fatherless and the widow
- The Lord watches over the foreigner and sustains the fatherless and the widow (Psalm 146:9 NIV)
- Thus says the Lord of hosts: “Execute true justice, Show mercy and compassion... Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the alien or the poor” (Zechariah 7:9-10 NKJV)
- Thus says the Lord: Do justice and righteousness... And do no wrong or violence to the resident alien, the fatherless, and the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place (Jeremiah 22:3 ESV)

Biblical Viewpoint

- God commands His people to remember their own immigrant history
- You must not oppress foreigners. You know what it's like to be a foreigner, for you yourselves were once foreigners in the land of Egypt (Exodus 23:9 NLT)
- When a stranger resides with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. The stranger who resides with you shall be to you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt (Leviticus 19:33-34 NASB)
