

Sheridan Research

An overview of Sheridan staff and their research interests and expertise

Darren Smith

Leadership
Management

Augusto Zimmermann

Fundamental rights in the age of COVID-19
Constitutional rights and freedoms
Religious freedom and religious vilification laws in Australia
Christian foundations of the common law
The Rule of Law

Law

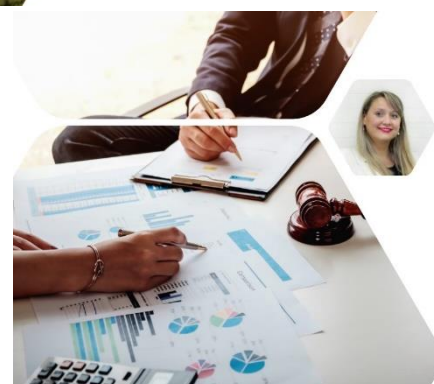

Christianity

Peter Elliott

Church History, Theology (especially patristics or ecclesiology)
English Reformation
The influence of Romanticism on theology in the 19th century
Pentecostal antecedents
Revivals and awakenings

Theology

Andrea Tokaji

Law (and related areas)
Leadership
Strategic Management
Organisational Development

Strategy

David Graieg

New Testament studies
Christian apologetics
Philosophy of religion

Christian life

Jason Coughran

Ecology, conservation
Christian life and practice
Biblical translation, exegesis

Conservation

John Davis

Adaptation to climate change in South Asia
Can social protection programs foster resilience in the face of climate change?
Can development programs enable the very poor to "graduate out" of poverty?
How effective of local creative care or nature stewardship groups?

Sustainable development

Kumar

Micro-Economics
Economics (Environmental, Tourism, Fisheries)
Sustainable Development

Alison Dench

Teaching RS191
Editing Workshops
Providing broad academic writing support for everyone

Creative writing

Augustine Donkor

Financial Planning
Management Accounting

Accounting

Peter Ho

Mathematics
Accounting

Technology

Miriam Lo

Poetry
Practices of feedback in Creative Writing
Post-colonial theory

Creativity

Maya Krayneva

Holistic approach to health and wellbeing
Innovative information technologies

Digital platforms

Behaviour

Leei Wong

Chinese
Japanese

Asian studies

Joshua Esler

Asian Studies
Sino-Tibetan relations through the medium of Buddhism, specifically Tibetan Buddhism
The sociology and anthropology of religion
Tibetan and Chinese religions, history, and philosophy
The state and religion in China
Religion and social change in China

Maritime history

Mark Fielding

The internationalisation and globalisation of education
Mentoring in education: policy, theory and practice
Maritime history: maritime exploration, discovery and exploitation in the Indian Ocean region

Global education

Mathilda Joubert

Creative education
Innovation
Creativity

Education

A.J. Murthy

Future skills in industry and education
System and Design Thinking for systems change and innovation
Entrepreneurship in business with a focus on using digital platforms

Anne Burlinson

Organizational Behaviour
Consumer Behaviour

Susan Conradie

Education
Home-based learning